THE 1959 DOULESTER

OU'WESTER

1959

Southwestern University Georgetown, Texas Pattie Clare, Editor

Dr. Hares devotes much of his time to gardening, his hobby.

DEDICATION

For his interest in the ideals and the aims of Southwestern University, the Sou'Wester staff proudly dedicates the 1959 yearbook to Dr. James Hares.

Dr. Hares, a member of the Religion and Philosophy department since 1951, represents well the integrity of his profession. To the students, he presents stimulating, intellectual challenges.

It is with sincere admiration that the staff, speaking for the entire administration and the student body, wishes Dr. Hares success in his new position at Highland Park Methodist Church, Dallas, Texas.

Besides teaching, Dr. Hares also offers personal guidance and help to his students.

DR. JAMES HARES

FOREWORD

A friendly smile that makes the day brighter, a blinking porch light that can mean only one thing, a professor's helping hand that opens the door to the future, the inevitable bell that sometimes seems to begin and end things, a satisfied feeling of accomplishment at the end of an active year—these and many more experiences make our days at Southwestern more meaningful.

Although they are vivid today, we, the annual staff, hope that the 1959 Sou'Wester will make tomorrow's memories only pictures of today.

THAT FIRST

Don't sign up for Score's class — he isn't teaching it this semester.

From here

To here.

HECTIC WEEK

Ever been on silence much?

Waiting for something?

Just exactly what group is this?

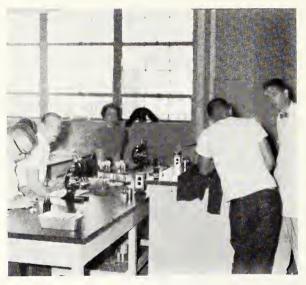

At first the President greeted us,

we played grown-up . . . then

WITH SCHOOL (

Some went to class.

A few studied.

And then there are always some like this.

Fun and games for pledges.

Brawn, brain (?), and beanies.

COME

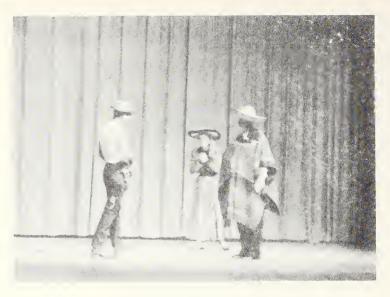

New, if not inspired, talent.

Hokey pokey down to courthouse.

Well groomed and sedate freshmen.

Even Zorro recommends it.

Don't tell me you're working!

What a stud band.

CARNIVAL

Food - the most important thing.

Be brave! Go on in.

The A D Pi's are having "Happy Hunting" this year.

You're all wet.

TIME

Dracula and Son.

How chic can you get!

There surely isn't anything like a dame!

INTR

Stomp, stomp clap, clap Tri Delt.

Really, she wasn't born bowlegged.

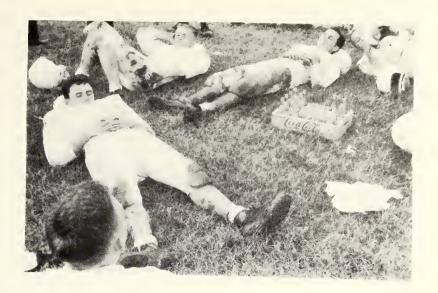

How graceful! How gracious and lovely! Our Southwestern ladies.

You don't understand — catch the ball, not her head.

RMURALS

And Mommie, those big boys kept hitting me.

Hey! It takes two teams to play that game.

Everybody knows you're supposed to close your mouth when you jump.

What this school needs is a good scholastic program.

Mildred is all smiles -- she got real flowers.

BEAUTY REVIEW

Excitement prevails before the big announcement.

Last minute preparations for the Southwestern beauties.

Nancy exhibits the grace of a Southwestern lady.

Sharon looks like the belle of the ball.

No wonder the judge is perplexed — they're all lovely.

Congratulations are extended to the All School Beauty of 1958-59.

Please charge that, Margaret,

Let's go out to Walburg and have a milk.

AROUND TOWN

We don't understand. This isn't the Geology class.

Keep your hands off the merchandise.

Don't sneeze, Jack. They aren't that bad.

Don't tell me you're signing out.

Our He-Men!

ND CAMPUS

This is the RAC, Nancy, not the gym.

Don't forget to pay.

Coffee time in the Tavern with Don.

You think this is a mess! Wait until registration.

WEEK-END AT COLLEGE

Frat time on DZ wing as preparations are made.

All the girls decided to come when they heard Dennis.

Rod, why didn't you tell us you had a sister?

Why is it that the boys' eyes are always on the new girls?

The traditional Carol Service adds the finishing touch to the Christmas season.

The members of Blue Key serve as ushers in the Christmas Carol Service.

CHRISTMAS SINGING

Sam Birkner leads the Sing Song at Mood Hall.

These are carolers?

They even let Lovey sing.

All aboard the Phi houseboat for Raintree County.

WE PARTIED

It's apparent that your husband doesn't believe you, Mrs. Switzer.

Watch the mistletoe, Kay!

Buck, it's really very simple.

Don't frown. We'll put our shoes on.

The Kappa Sigmas hold their annual fete.

What brought this one?

AND PARTIED. . . .

Jerry, your cigarette holder makes you look nothing but sophisticated.

The boys really went hill-billy that night.

The PiKA barn party was very formal this year.

Look at the good example. Lee's not even a pledge and she's working.

AND PARTIED

Ben played Santa this year. He's so jolly.

Ronnie is playing host at the Sig house.

What's so funny?

SOME MORE

This time the faculty and guests party.

The Tri Delts are ready for the food.

It's all propaganda, Jane.

The Zetas are all smiles.

IN THE

Surrender or else!

Who eats in the dining hall—Cook it yourself.

An SU student utilizing his study time.

Why don't y'all get serious!

BUT NOT

DORM

What a messy child you are.

They don't read them-it's just to fool the public.

Typical Southwestern males.

ASLEEP

The girls don't live in rooms this year at LK.

She really must be hungry.

Don't run. She won't bite, Jan.

DRAMA

Don't die, Lilliom.

What is it?

Don't hit her, Jerry.

The Magpie in an image of a frightened bird.

Rosemary doesn't need a parakeet. She can talk enough by herself.

HIGHLIGHTS

"Out to Lunch"

"The Mousetrap" proved to be a real thriller.

What a motley-looking crew!

Dr. Hester, Why so glum?

THE FINER

Dr. W. C. Finch assists in Chapel with lecturer.

They may let Wayne Bradford join their group next year.

Dean Richards enjoys himself at these functions.

THINGS OF LIFE

The annual lectures provide ample opportunity for discussion.

Dr. James Hares is interested in the Sutton-Hoo discovery. He's comtemplating swiping the valuables.

What a pretty skirt that material would make!

Forget it, Mr. Valone. They don't understand it either.

Is this the way you stay in condition?

Are these the supervisors?

Moving books downstairs is really hard work.

WE WORK

The editor had to get her picture in somewhere.

Take it like a man, Dick.

Miss Southwestern nominees.

It takes two people to hold up this honor for the Senate.

HONORS

This is "the brains" reward.

This is the smile of the Basketball Sweetheart.

Kay Dean, Best Dressed Girl of the Campus.

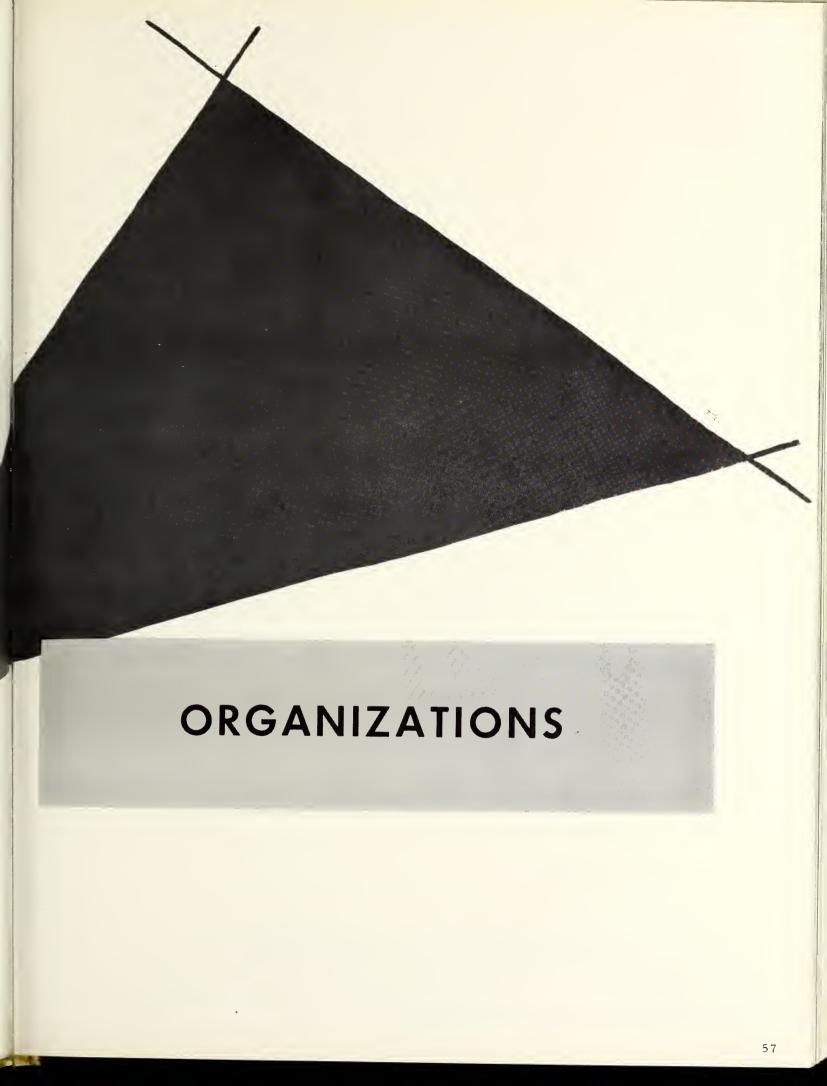

The big honor—Sherry's engagement to Henry.

Presiding over the 612 students at Southwestern University are President Joe Wilson; Second Vice-President Fred Sanders; Secretary Mary Beth McKinney; First Vice-President Kenny Behrens; and Treasurer Morris Ray Loden.
